NOTICE: DISCUSSION FORUM

Please note that, as you know we are already circulated the MS Form (Subject related Queries) for collecting topics for Discussion Forum. But it is observed that, the students are not understanding the important of this and not filling appropriate subject related queries in the form. Due to this, faculties are conducting Discussion Forum as per the Unit wise important topics & or discussing the Case studies related to the course.

In the discussion forum, it is expected that exchange of the thoughts should be based on the related topics for exchanging knowledge which leads to peer learning from the same.

The students are requested to keep the decorum of the session/class and follow the instructions given by the respective faculty.
